

GEORGE J. ARNOLD FOUND GUILTY

Spiritualistic Medium Convicted Of Assaulting an Aged Woman.

HER FACE BADLY BATTERED.
When Spirit Appeared Mrs. Brandon Said It and Then Received a Considerable Blow From Defendant.

The case of George J. Arnold, who calls himself a spiritualistic medium and who was charged with committing the offense of assault upon the person of Mrs. Mary Brandon, came up for trial in the criminal division of the court yesterday afternoon. After a long and somewhat sensational trial, the defendant was found guilty and sentenced to be imprisoned on Thursday next.

Judge J. Whittaker was on the bench. Judge Diehl having been called out of the court by the illness of one of his children. Mrs. Brandon, one of the witnesses, who is a woman of 75 years of age, and who appeared in court with a badly battered face, was the principal witness against Arnold. She told of how she had gone to the place of Arnold and Dickson to confer with the spirit of her dead children, the medium having assured her that the dead spirits could be summoned from the other world. Some time ago she became suspicious that the voices she heard were those of her children, and she went to the place where the medium was holding his sittings, and there she saw Arnold and Dickson. She told of how she was seized by the arm and how she was thrown to the ground, and how she was beaten and how she was battered.

PAIN FROM A BURN PROMPTLY RELIEVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM.

Mr. James N. Nichols, a merchant and postmaster at Vernon, Conn., makes the following statement: "A little child of Michael Strauss was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to me for something to stop the little one's pain.
From the many liniments I carry in stock, I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, sprains, etc. It is a sure remedy, and is known to be reliable. For sale by all druggists."

WAGON DEMOLISHED.

Streetcar Crashed Into It—Caused Death of Horse.

A delivery wagon belonging to the Turner Hay & Grain company of 125 east Second South street, and driven by Myron Blackitt, was run into at 5 p. m. yesterday on Third South street, near Third East, by car No. 28 of the Warm Springs line, and demolished. Blackitt had driven to the street from an alley, and did not notice the approaching car as he tried to cross the tracks in front of it. John W. Nelson, the motorman, says he rang his gong and tried to stop the car, but could not prevent the collision. The wagon was jammed between the car and a pole, and Blackitt and John and James Moriarty, two boys with him, were pitched into the street. One of the horses had his leg broken and was subsequently shot by Policeman Harris. The men were bruised some, but not seriously injured. The horse was killed and the fender demolished. Blackitt tried his best to get out of the way, but was unsuccessful.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS.

More Than 400 Registered at State Institution Yesterday.

Over 400 students registered yesterday at the state university, many of them new students, and today's enrollment is expected to exceed that of yesterday. The capacity of the laboratories has been doubled, a 300,000 pound Olsen testing machine has been placed in the mechanical department, a new Cornell Oil apparatus for testing all kinds of oil has been installed, and a new rock-crushing machine added to the equipment of the geology department.

A large new planing machine has been ordered, and is expected to be here for use in the manual training department, which opens a week later than the other departments of the university. A general system of telephone is also being installed in the buildings and on the grounds, so that students and teachers may be reached without difficulty in case of necessity. A phone will be placed in each professor's room two installed in the gymnasium, and others will be arranged at convenient places in the main halls.

The pharmacy laboratory will have a specimen cabinet containing samples of all the drugs listed in the United States Pharmacopoeia, also two high grade Leitz microscopes. Among the new members of the faculty in medicine appear the names of Dr. T. B. Beatty, who is to lecture on "The Civil Laws of Hygiene;" Dr. Calderwood will lecture on "Physical Diagnosis;" Dr. Ross Anderson on "Bacteriology and Pathology," and other local physicians will lecture and instruct. Prof. Levi Young will succeed Prof. Howell as principal of the preps, and Prof. Arnoldson is to teach German and French. Prof.
Marshall is the dean of the English faculty.

THINKS THEY ARE DEAD.

Blind Organ Grinder and Wife Not Heard From Since 'Frisco Horror.

Peter Hansen, Danish consul for Utah, says that he is fully convinced of the death of an old familiar character about the streets of Salt Lake. He was a blind organ grinder named Olsen, who, with his wife, went to San Francisco some time before the earthquake and fire that almost wiped it off the map. He feels sure, also, that Mrs. Olsen, and probably one sent to the same fate. For a long time Mrs. Olsen has been drawing semi-annual pension drafts from the Danish government. For the last remittance Mr.
Hansen has not been able to locate her though he has now tried for several months. Accordingly, the pension remains unpaid.
